The Peons Concerned represent that Delhi is extremely cold at this part of the year & that the ordinary warm clothing issued to them for Cold ~~or~~ Inland trips would not serve as sufficient protection from the Cold ~~at Delhi~~ there.

They ~~therefore~~ therefore pray that they may be given one & all Specially heavy warm clothing as on the last Durbar occasion.

No information is available here now as to the cost &c. at which clothing was issued on the last occasion.

The Comptroller's ~~office~~ has this day been requested to furnish the required information. Many we await the reply.

Consideration in the Secretariat office. Under the circumstances all that is required at present is to give the men in question the warm clothing at the cost of the ~~cost~~ white clothing they are entitled to under the rules (Please See rule II of G.O. Nos. 6787-819 of 16.5.08)

As the cost of one years white clothing (Rs 13/4 in the case of Musical Officers & Rs 10/- in the case of the other orderlies) is too small for purposes of warm clothing it is respectfully submitted that warm clothing at the cost of Rs 26/8 in the case of Musical officers & Rs 20/- in the case of the other orderlies (Bandsmen) the white clothing ~~due to~~ due in 1912 & 1913 (i.e. two years) may be issued now to the men (as explained above) who go to Delhi.

Warm clothing may be supplied to the recruits going to Delhi at the above rates. The Khaki serge marked on the sample put up & obtained from the Military Stores will if approved be purchased. We have not sufficient time to ~~now~~ call for tenders for the other items viz Mull, Long-cloth & Cord turbans and the same will be obtained from the approved tenders on the last occasion if their rates happen to be favourable as compared with the prevailing rates at the local firms. The necessary lengths of cloth will be measured out to such of those as would prefer to get their suits stitched on their own account- on receipt of stitching charges & the remaining suits will be entrusted to Mrs. B. K. Ganda Chari of the 'City Khana' at the usual rates for stitching &c.
